

KVH's 2008 United Way Campaign

Enjoy the photos below, which include a (more or less) accurate timeline of the big finale and pie-in-the-face event.

The charitable giving committee wisely hung tarps to catch the pie mess...

The committee meets briefly before the festivities

There was great turnout for the 2008 United Way Celebration!

Chris thanks Eileen for all her hard work in running our United Way campaign for several years

KVH presents a donation of $16,050 to the United Way of RI

Eileen helps the pie-in-the-face volunteers get into their protective garbage bags.. er, suits...

Watching the presentation of KVH's United Way donation

A representative from the United Way of RI thanks KVH for drumming up so much excitement

These are all the tools you need to put pies in the faces of nine managers

Our brave volunteers, pre-pie

The volunteers wondering why they offered to do this...

Linda takes aim at Jim with the afternoon's first pie

Direct hit!

Enjoying a laugh

Chris takes his pie like a champ!

Eric can't believe that Mary really got him with a pie!

Walt is glad it's over

Rick assesses the damage

SPLAT!

Colleen stands on a chair to get a better shot at Jay

Hecklers in the crowd!

Aha! Bob found a loophole -- he offers to donate an extra $20 to the United Way if Brian will "redirect" his pie

Taking it with as much grace as one can muster when unexpectedly covered with whipped cream
